GRANT'S BOURBON DEMOCRATS. THE ADMINISTRATION RUNNING THE LOUIS-VILLE CONVENTION-AN INTERESTING CIR-

CULAR.
[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TELEUNE.] LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Aug. 12.-The following letter was received to-day by a prominent Republican of this place. J. M. Edmunds, the man who sent it, is Grant's Postmaster at Washington, and is Secretary of the Grant Congress Campaign Committee. His signature to the letter has been compared with that to other letters in possession of persons here, and is unquestionably genuine. The circular he incloses is a printed copy of Bianton Duncan's call for the Louisville Bourbon Convention. The letter and circular came inclosed in envelope on the cutside of which is printed, "Union ton, D. C." The letter reads as follows : WASHINGTON, D. C., July 30, 1872. DEAR SIR: Please send the inclosed circular to active Democrats in your district who do not support Mr. Greeley and will cooperate in the Louisville Convention. send me a list of such men in each county immediately. J. M. EDMUNDS, Secretary.

This letter completely proves the charge that the Bo bon movement is managed in the interest of Grant by the Administration Campaign Committee at Washington.

GRANT AND THE KU-KLUX. HIS CONNECTION WITH THE MILITARY RULE AT THE SOUTH.

IBY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE! WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.-The statement which the reflection journals are now circulating and expanding, to the effect that President Grant took no part in aiding or procuring the Ku-Klux legislation of the present Congress, but was simply and solely an Administration officer executing the decrees of Congress, is not well sustained by the facts or the records. Grant's persistent demands of Congress for a Ku-Klux law, during its first session in the Spring of 1871, are matters to mmon fame and general recollection. If there could common rame and general reconstruction at that time, it ought to be removed by the following dispatch of March 23, 1871, to The New-York Times, then as now

Grant's own familiar organ:
Up to this morning the President had not decided to send in any process. Up to this morning, the President had not decided to send in any message upon the condition of affairs at the South. Soon after 12, he went up to the Senate to hear Senator Sectt speak upon the Sherman resolution. While there he resolved to add the weight of his official sanction to the efforts that were making to provide some means of relief, and to show that he was cordially in sympathy with those efforts as well as to show, contrary to the repeated charges of his enemies, that he had no object in desiring the proiongation of this session for any ether purpose. He therefore sat down in the President's room of the Senate and wrote his brief message.

LIBERAL VICTORY IN MONTANA. MAGINNIS ELECTED DELEGATE TO CONGRESS.

[BY TELEGUAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.] HELENA, Aug. 12 .- Official returns elect Major Maginnis, Liberal Democrat, delegate to Congress by 300 majority. Although denied the privilege of participating in the political affairs of the Union, Montana gives her moral support to Greeley and Brown, whose election we believe will guarantee an honest and prosperous administration of national affairs and unite the people of our country in the bonds of eternal friend-RUFUS E. THE BOWEN-GRANT CASE IN WASHINGTON. A VINDICATION OF MR. BOWEN BY A FRIEND, To the Editor of The Tribune.

SIR: In THE TRIBUNE of Tuesday, Aug. 6, an article was republished from The Washington Capital, implicating Mr. Sayles J. Bowen in a bargain or understanding with President Grant, whereby the former was to release the latter from a contract for the sale of a ouse, on condition that he (Bowen) should have control of the patronage of the District of Columbia. This is simply untrue, and proof has already been published in The Transcript of this city completely establishing the innocence of Mr. Bowen, itt has been established beyond a doubt that Mr. Bowen never entered into a bargain with President Grant for the control of any patronage in this District, or elsewhere. The insinuation that he received $25,000, or even one penny, for the distribution of the District patronage, is too ridiculous to require contradiction. That an astempt may have been made on the part of the President and his friends to induce Mr. the part of the President and his friends to induce Mr. Bowen to anual the contract, and thus release the property, is not so clear, Mr. Bowen having received a message from the President that no recommendations of his would be received, and no favors given to any of his friends until the contract was canceled.

I am satisfied that great injustice was done Mr. Bowen in the article in The Capital, and have written this vinciention because simple justice demands it.

THE STATE CAMPAIGN.

PROMINENT MEN MENTIONED FOR POSITIONS ON THE STATE TICKET-REPRESENTATIVE CAN-DIDATES OF BOTH PARTIES TO BE PLACED IN NOMINATION.

Although the Liberal Republican and Democratic State Committees have not yet issued calls for Conventions to nominate State officers and Congressmen at Large, the names of those eligible for the various po stitions, and their chances of receiving the respective nominations, are thoroughly canvassed. During the past week several informal consultations have been held by Liberal Republican and Democratic leaders, at Saratoga, and elsewhere, and the strength of various representative men, and the question whether they would accept the nominations tendered, were fully and freely discussed The two Conventions will probably meet at the same time and place, as has been the case in nearly all the States where Conventions have thus far been held, when a ticket composed of the strongest men of the Liberal Republican and Democratic parties will be nominated Chief Justice Sanford E. Church of the Court of Appeals is very generally spoken of as a suitable person for the Governorship, and it is thought he will be unanime nominated for that office. At the election held May 17, 1870, under the amended Constitution, Judge Church was elected to his present position by a vote of 239,685, against 151,788 for Henry R. Selden, his Republican com petitor, thus receiving a majority of 87,879, and leading the Democratic ticket by 28,000. Being a man of pure character, it is believed that his nomination and accept. ance would be a sufficient refutation of the charge that the Democratic party has not purged itself of the corrupt gang which for a time controlled it, and that this gang, although it does not show itself above the surface, still possesses as much power as ever If it is considered necessary for success that Judge Church should head the ticket, he will necept the nomination. Francis L. Kerman of Uties, one of the strongest Democrats of Central New-York, is also salked of for the position. His counsel has been fre quently heeded in past conventions, and he has the reputation of being a shrewd and far-seeing politician. He is personally very popular, and could poll the full vote of his party and be acceptable to many Republicans. Horatic Seymour's name is also mentioned for the candidature, but it is doubtful whether he could be induced to necept the nomination under any circumstances. The Hon. Homer A. Nelson will have a large number of friends in the coming Conventions, but it is not probable that he will permit his name to be used as didate for the nomination. He is heartily in favor of Judge Church, believing him to be the strongest man the Liberals could put on the ticket. Senator Jarvis Lord of Monroe County is counted among the possible candidates. He is a representative man in his district, and very popular, having beaten his opponent last year by a handsome majority, although the district is Republican and gave the Republican State ticket a majority of

In the eastern portion of the State the most prominent name mentioned is that of Senator Henry C. Murphy of Brooklyn. He has long been before the public, and is well known throughout the State. He is probably as strong a man as could be put forward from this end of the State. He is extremely popular, having defeated his Republican competitor, Van Siclen, one year ago by a majority of 6,565. His friends believe that his nomination would weaken the influence of O'Brien in certain wards in New-York City, and strengthen the Presidential ticket. Within the past few days, the Hon. Augustus Schell, Chairman of the National Democratic Executive Committee and Grand Sachem of the reconstructed Tammany Society, has been mentioned as a suitable candidate for the nomination, but pressing business engagements would probably prevent his acceptance. addition to the above mentioned gentlemen, Lieut.-Gov. Beach, and several others are spoken of as candidates

ander certain conditions. For the Lieutenant-Governorship there are several names mentioned. The two most prominent candidates among the Liberal Republicans are the Hon. DeWitt C. Lit tlejohn, several times Speaker of the Assembly, and the omas G. Alvord. For the past two or three years Mr. Littlejohn has been so busily engaged in the super-intendence of the construction of the New-York Midland and Oswego Railway that he has had little time to devote to politics. The road is now in a fair way of completion, That | deno

he will give forth no uncertain sound, is shown by his recent speech declaring for the Liberal cand he will give forth no uncertain sound, its shown by his recent speech declaring for the Liberal candidates, as well as in the many speeches he has made in various paris of the State. He is well known from one end of the State to the other, and it is generally conceded that he is one of the most popular men in New-York. Mr. Alvord is as well known as Mr. Littlejohn, and has been in public life for fully as long a period. He is exceedingly popular in the central part of the State, and, like Mr. Littlejohn, has several times been honored with the position of Speaker of the Assembly. Either of these gentiemen would add strength to the ticket.

For the minor positions on the ticket many names have been suggested, but none have thus far assumed much prominence. For Congressmen at Large, on the part of the Democrats, the names of the Hon. Horatio Seymour and the Hon. S. S. Cox are the most prominence. Sown on the respective to the names of some of their strongest men for the nomination. Among others, the Hon. Philip Dorsheimer of Buffalo, one of the first to take part in the Liberal movement, the Hon. John Cochrane and Assemblyman Husted are mentioned for the position.

The Laberal Republican State Committee will be called together in a week or two, when they will name a day for holding the Convention. Meanwhile the fitness and strength of the representative men of both parties, with each closely calculated, and the contest for the nominations narrowed down to a few of the most prominent. There seems to be no question but that the ticket will be made up of representative men of both parties, and be one of the strongest and best that has been submitted to the people for many years past.

SPEECH OF CONGRESSMAN SHELLABARGER.

THE PAST MUST NOT BE FORGOTTEN-FALLACY OF GREELEY'S POLICY. [BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.]

CHICAGO, Aug. 12.-The Hon. Samuel Shellabarger addressed a large meeting of Republicans this evening at Springfield, Ohio. He said the cry that parties cannot live on their past as an incentive to fidelity, was only an inducement for people to ignore the lives of men and parties, preposterous. Everybody knows from the experience of daily life that character is the highest of tests of fitness, but character in parties, as in individuals, was formed not in the profusion of excellence, but in these mil of witnesses, the acts of life. It was the climax of of witnesses, the acts of life. It was the climated audacity to make the proposition to let by-gones be by-gones in the shape of a demand. Impelled by admonitions like these this nation dare not do otherwise than refuse to put in practice that appalling perfidy of Mr. Greeley that in selecting our rulers and bestowing honors, we shall give the same honors to the acts of Lee in the overthrow of liberty as to them who defeated treason, and hence he (the speaker) would proceed with malice toward none to scrutiny of great lives, rather than great platforms to see who are fitted to take care of our liberties. Scrutinize first the demand made in the first and second resolutions at Baltimore, that the colored race should escape from the Republican and fly to the Democratic party, in order to make safe their liberty and equity. He appealed to the career of these parties n their relations to the black race. He then compared the records of the two parties, reciting the results a complished by the Republican party, and the companies by the Democratic party. The colored race is invited to its own betrayal, on the sham of the Democratic stimulated acceptance at second hand of the Cincinnati platform, already smeared at Memphis and in Georgia with the blood of the black race, and in Ohlo by a large Democratic organized conspiracy against e. proceeded to a statement of the personal as-that race. He then proceeded to a statement of the personal aspects of the canvass as seen in the characters of the canvassus seen in the characters of the candidates. After stating the folly and danger of destroying that great party, he proceeded to show the injustice of the assumption that Greeley was a better man than Grant. He noticed the organized schemes of detraction arranged against torant as unprecedented in the history of political licentio, sness, ingratitume, and vulgarity. He showed the attacks on him to be merconcerted indecencies, made up for an election, and concluded by declaring that he knew the President and repelled these attempts at another assassimation of smother President who was the nation's first citizen, first Magnatrate, and foremost defenier. He said that an inpartial history would record the results of Grant's life as the grandest events of the Century, and the included rescue of the Union and the rescue of Republican liberty, and that his character was that of a modest, magnanimous man and magnatrate; honest, direct and frank, marked precentically evention sense and practical wisdom, and diligent attention to and care for public welfare. and diligent attention to and care for public welfare

CAMPAIGN NOTES.

Four more Greeley and Brown flags have been raised in Portsmouth, N. H.

Col. Jesse T. Warner, one of the Grant electors in 1868, in Nebraska, has written a letter declar-ing his intention of voting for Greeley and Brown.

A flag-pole, 100 feet in hight and bearing a handsome white hat, was raised on the 8th inst. at West Clarendon, Orieans County, N. Y. Speeches were made by Judge E. R. Reynelds and Abel Stilson of Albion, and by Col. James M. Packard of Clarendon.

The Grant Republicans of the VIIth Ohio District met at Hillsboro, on Thursday, and renominated the Hon. John T. Wilson for Congress by acclamation. The Grant Republicans of the XVth District renominated the Hon. W. P. Sprague by acciamation.

The Scriptural knowledge of the organs is defective. Almost the only opprobrious Biblical name h which they seem to be familiar is Judas. This they g indiscriminately at Sumner, Greeley, and others a bave carned their virtuous detestation.

Major W. C. Moreau, a member of the Executive Committee that called the Louisville Convention, has issued an address from Indianapolis the Democracy of Indiana, in which he ists ever received the arms or not. Respectfully, yours, to more the nomination of Greeley, and calls.

The names of J. B. Searles, Dr. E. W. John-

Union soldier whose arm is withered from a wound received in the war, and now a supporter of Greeley, replied to the taunt that the man who shot him would vote for Greeley, with the plump declaration: "Yes; and the man who received the shot will vote for him too."

A large number of politicians were at Saratoga yesterday. Among them were Messra Tilden, Richmond, C. S. Spencer, John Cochrane, Gen. Jones, Mr. Kingsland of Brooklyn, and Jacob Sharpe. The Democratic State Central Committee meet there to-morrow, to fix the time and place for the meeting of the State Convention.

Ex-Senator Benjamin F. Wade has had a conversation with a reporter which ought to entertain almost anybody. He drew some parallels between Liberal Republicans and "bob-tailed bulls in fly-line;" "compared Horace Greeiey with Judas Iseariot and Renedict Arnold," and then "spoke very highly of Gen. Grant."

About 20 Grant Republicans assembled in the United States court-room at Memphis, on Saturday, and nominated Barbour Lewis for Congress. So quietly was the meeting held that the members of the Congress Committee knew nothing of it until late that night. The manner in which the meeting was conducted is denounced by the leading Grant men of the district.

Rival mass meetings will be held in Bennington, Vt., on Friday next, the anniversary of the defeat of Burgoyne. There will be a meeting in the open air by the Liberals in the afternoon, and in the evening there will be meetings held by both Liberals and Graut Republicans. The Liberal meetings will be addressed by Gen. Kilpatrick and Stephen J. Meaney of New-York, and Senator Wilson, together with Senator Conking, will address the Grant meetings.

Letters from prominent politicians of Maine to the Liberal Republican headquarters at Washington say that the Administration is sending documents all say that the Administration is sending documents an abrough that section purporting to be copies and extracts of letters from Horace Greedey, wherein the latter is made to advecate the payment of the Rebel war debt, the compensation of all slaveholders for loss of slaves, and of pensions to Confederate soldiers. These letters state that intelligent men in that section really think these things likely to happen should Greeicy be elected.

Frederick Douglass has issued an address to the colored voters, warning them against "the insidiou the colored voters, warning them against "the insidious and dangerous advice and counsel of Mr. Summer," and giving some reasons why, as he thinks, they should east their "whole weight into the scale for Grant and Wisson." He tells them that they owe their liberation from Slavery to the Republican party; that they cast their first vote as freedimen for Grant in 1898; that they have had no reason to be disappointed in his Administration; and that the election of Greeley means the cancelation of their "ordinary privileges and biessings."

The Sun published yesterday a long article charging President Grant with suppressing an exposure of the payment of fraudulent claims to the amount of $10,000,000. It charges that Grant, while Secretary of War as interim, hindered an investigation and prevented the publishing of evidence showing the payment of the frandalent claims by Paymester-General Brice; that though Brice was removed by President Johnson, Grant reinstated him immediately after as inacgration. These facts are supported by documentary evidence, including the suppressed report on the subject, prepared at the time by a Special Committee of the House of Representatives. ad interim, hindered an investigation and prevented the

The Hon, S. W. Moulton of Shelbyville, Ill. having been asked by the Grant Republican Committee what time be could devote to their service during this campaign, replies in a letter dated Aug. 7, that he has no intention of devoting any. While it pains him to no intention of devoting any. While it pains him to separate from old political associates, he claims to do so from an houest difference of opinion. He insists that "Gen. Grant falls immeasurably short of satisfying the intelligent American lies of what an American President should be;" that "the present Administration is a close corporation"—"class rule, and hardly a government of the people at all;" and that "the Liberal movement will parily the Government and give the powerback into the hands of the people," and "clevate to the Presidency an honest and competent satesman," Apather sories of those finitials." Another series of those "reliable" canvasses of this State, by the Custom-house organ, showing that there are no Liberal Republicans in any of the counties would be of immense interest just now. It would derive especial force by being published side by side with the list of 500 names attached to the Mouroe County with the list of 500 names attached to the Monroe County call for a Liberal Couvention. Then there is Steuben County which needs attention. The Buth Advocate publishes a call for a County Convention to be held at Buth, August 29, and prints a list of more than 500 names of signers to the call. Among the names are such well-known one; as those of State Senator G. T. Harrower, exsenator Stephen T. Hayt, the Hon. Daniel B. Bryan, the Hon. Henry Sherwood, the Hon. Horace Bemis, the Hon. F. M. Kreidler, the Hon. David McMaster, formerly County Judge; ex-Sheriffs Orange Seymour, William N. Smith, and E. R. Kasson, E. D. Mills, Chairman, and Jonathan Robie, member of the Grant Ecpublican County Committee.

SPIRIT OF THE PRESS.

A Boston paper is authority for the statement that The Roston Journal, which bitterly opposed Gen. Butler in his attempt to grab the Governorship last year, is now his personal organ.

The Omaha Herald charges, upon the authority of the Hon. Edward Rosewater, that Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska, a steadfast supporter of the Administra-tion, demanded an equivalent in money for a cadetship around the stead of the control of the cadetship

A correspondent writes that The Oconomowood the Administration ticket and raised the name of Greeley and Brown. The editor, Ashley D. Harger, is talked of as a promote candidate for the nomination for Congress in his district. (Wis.) Times, heretofore a Grant paper, has taken down

In response to the suggestions of the Grant papers that Merrimon's majority in North Carolina be advertised under the head of " Lost," The Chicago Tribune offers the following: "Lost-Somewhere in North Carolina, whatever little reputation the carpet-bag goverments may have had for counting votes correctly. Who arded and no questions asked

The tunes of the organs are many and various. The Cincinnati Times and Chronicle, as in honor bound, supports all measures adopted by Congress towards the Southern people, and at the same time endeavors to arouse the sentiment of Southerners by declaring that the reconstruction measures were founded upon the report made by Gen. Scharz as to the condition of Southern sentiment immediately after the close of the war. They order these things better in Italy. No clever organ-grinder ever mismanages his stops so as to produce such a jumble as this.

It may be generally inferred when a party is reduced to the excessive flinging of mud, that their sup ply of more destructive ammunition is exhausted. The Missouri Republican says: "We do not know that there is necessarily any logical connection between despera-tion and dirt, but it certainly seems that precisely in propertion to the rate at which Grant's chances of re-ciection are deciming, the efforts of his friends move away from the line of decency and bonor. The Adminis-tration and its agents boldly employ those instrumentali-ties which ought to bilent the prospects of a good cause, and are more than enough to effectually d—n a bad one."

There seems now to be something of a quarrel as to who were and who were not Abolitionists, The Columbia (3. C.) Phanix, which comes from a district certainly at one time interested in the matter of Abolition and Abolitionists, insists that Greeley is entitled to the gratitude of the colored race as having been tied to the gratitude of the colored race as having been in advance of Sumner, (Garrison, and Gerrit Smith. It says: "Greeley's fivery utterances and forcible argumentation in The TRIBUNE, his line upon line, precept upon precept, all bound together by logical consistency and unimpeachable sincerity, interfused with fervent feeling and sustained by concurrent opinion from every quarter, constitute a work fully the equal of that of the trio of leading advocates just mentioned put together. In this work he has never faltered nor wavered. From first to last it has worn the strong characteristics of stability and constancy."

THE GERMAN ARMS QUESTION.

FURNISHING MUSKETS TO THE SOUTH. CLEVELAND, Aug. 12 .- The Leader of to-morrow will contain the following letter:

row will contain the following letter:

To the Editor of The Leader.

Sir: Dr. Canishus, who, during the Rebellion of our Southern Secessionists, was the United States Consul in Vienna, has given evidence, in his recently-published letter, to the fact that the Austrian and Prussian Governments sold arms of every description to agents, who forwarded them to the Rebels. Now, at a time when there is much talk by Carl Schurz and the Liberals about our sale of arms to France, I feel obliged to say that what I know about the sale of arms to the Southerners, the legality of which was never doubted by the Germans so long as they had a hand in it themselves.

was never doubted by the Gormans so long as they had a hand in it themselves. In July or August, 1862, I made a trip from Bremen to Hamburg, and met in the diligence a personal friend, a Pirst Lieutenant named Siefert, of the Bremen Hauzatie Battalion, and his brother-in-law, a Mr. Borntraeger, a commissioned Landwehr officer, of Dusseidorf, Prussia. In the course of conversation they told me that they were going to Hamburg, in order to send a cargo of muskets purchased from the arsenals of several German principalities to the Southern States. This fact is still fresh in my memory, because a dispute arose cipalities to the Southern States. This fact is stress in my memory, because a dispute arose between us over the question as to whether such a transaction, carried out by military officials, could be considered a legitimate business, the Rebels not being an acknowledged beligerent power. The last I heard of the sale was a rumor that the abovenamed officer had had the worst of it, that is, that he had met with heavy losses. It is, however, beyond my knowledge whether the Secession the cour received the arms or not. Respectfully, yours,

THE MURPHY-TWEED-O'BRIEN COMBINA. TION.

SOME QUESTIONS WHICH DEMAND SPECIFIC ANSWERS.

The New-York Times of yesterday, after a uspicious delay, makes a show of denying the report of THE TRIBUNE of Saturday, that O'Brien and Murphy had ade a bargain by which the former had agreed to sell what he could not deliver. It says: "We desire to make the denial as broad as language can make it," but takes od care to do nothing of the sort. It also says "it is authorized," but never mentions by whom. Now, if The Times is really authorized by anybody it can name. THE TRIBUNE would like to make specific answers of these things which it has specifically charged:

things which it has specifically charged:

I. That The Times proprietor was a close ally of James O Brien; that he obtained the stolen figures of the Tammany frauds from that person without cost, and that the paper itself advocated the passage of a bill through the Lexislature, to pay the man who abstracted them for O Brien $5,000 out of the public funds.

II. That O'Brien and Murphy and The Times's legal friend, Judge McCunn, were closeted in Murphy's office, No. 3 Pinest, the day before McCunn was convicted, and that then and there Murphy gave O'Brien orders on the Collector for places for his men.

HAVE TWEED'S SUITS BEEN COMPROMISED BY

ATTORNEY-GEN, BARLOW I

From The Near-York World, Aug. 12.

The course of Mr. Wickham and the refusal of the best men in Apollo Hall to countenance the scheme to turn that organization over to the support of Grant has broken up the plans of Murphy, Bilss and Company. William Orton, one of Grant's workers, has announced that they have entirely abandoned the plot, and will not again entertain the idea. The fact is, though, they think they have been successful in another arrangement, which is with Tweed, and which they imagine will do them more service than any arrangements they could make with O'Brien. To show how far they have entered into a bargain with Tweed, it is only necessary to state that they have given several of Tweed's men, whom he designated, important places in the last ten days. This of itself is significant, but there is more still to this bargain. There are suits pending in the courts at Albany against Tweed, which were brought under the auspices of the Attorney-General. These are for the recovery of several millions of dollars from Tweed for the people of this city. Tweed is perfectly consident that he will win in these suits in the end, but it will require two or three years of expensive litigation to do so. The Attorney-General being a Grant man, formerly partner of Bilss, and an arent of the Murphy crowd, the arrangements are not difficult to perfect. The report is current in all political circles in this city that a bargain has been and an agent of the Murphy crowd, the arrangements are not difficult to perfect. The report is current in all political circles in this city that a bargain has been made, and the conditions on Tweed's side are reported to be that he will throw his influence for Grant, and pay half a million of dollars toward a campaign fund to be used to nid Grant's election. In some quarters, the sum is stated at a million, but the former is believed by those best likely to know to be nearer the truth. In return for this, the sums at Albany are to be allowed to elumber until after election, and then willdrawn by the Alforder-bey-General, leaving Tweed with a perfect title to all his property. In the mean time such of Tweed's friends as he nesignates are to have places, as already stated.

A Grant organ has been publishing at the head of its local page this droll announcement:

Throughout the Presidential canvass we shall publish faller reports of meetings and conventions in cach State than any other New-York journal. Our desire is to place before the public the latest and most trustworthy information, and we have made ample arrangements for that nurses.

And here is the way it publishes fuller reports of events occurring under its very nose in the City of New-York. The list is made up of reports of incidents occurring in single week-August 4 to August 11 inclusive-which were fully reported in The Trinune and never mentioned, unless a day late, in The Times:

THE LIBERALS AT WORK. At the Liberal Republican National Head-

quarters, Col. Jasper W. Johnson, the Secretary, who had been temporarily absent on the stump, resumed charge yesterday. During his absence Lindsay has acted temporarily as Secretary. The headquarters were comparatively described during the day. Among the visitors were Gen. N. P. Banks, Massachusetts; John B. Claggett, Washington, D. C.; S. R. Mallory, Florida, ex-Secretary of the Confederate Navy, and Daniel D. Diliman of the Liberal Republican Pennsylvania Central Committee, Pottsville, Penn. A large number of documents in German were received, and the clerks were occupied during the day in forwarding them to all parts of the THE STATE CANVASS.

Among the visitors at the Liberal State Committee's rooms, yesterday, were Charles A. Birnie, member of the Kansas Liberal Republican State Committee, Leavenworth, Kansas; William Call, jr., Haverstraw, N. Y.; J. P. Whitchead, New-Brunswick, N. J.; H. E. Clark, V. H. Harrison, W. L. Jeffers, J. W. Buyse, F. W. Wilkins, Robert C. Starrit, all of Clarkton, Mo.; C. St. John, jr., Port Jervis, N. Y. A correspondent from Roxbury, Delaware County, N. Y., writes: We have made a careful estimate of the Liberal Republican vote in this county, and think we can now safely count on 560 Liberal Republicans. This county will be very close. The following information comes from Oneonta, Otsego County, N. Y.:

There is no defection in the Democratic ranks in this vicinity, and we have enough Liberal Republicans to wipe out the usual Republican majority in this town. A well-informed citizen writing from Forestville, Chautauqua County, says:

Forty Republicans signed a call for a meeting to organize a Greeley Club last week. In a small school district near this place I know of 13 who voted for Grant four years ago who will vote against him now. Yesterday a convention was held in Mayville, and an organization of Liberal Republicans was effected. Another correspondent from Union, Broome County, N. Y., writes:

We are going to have a rousing Liberal Club in this One at Sing Sing, N. Y., says:

Our meeting last evening was well attended. Ten voters signed the roll, among them, we colored men. Our Liberal Ropublican Club numbers now 44 members, which is three-fourths of the voters in Ossining Election

THE DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE ROOMS. Advices received yesterday at the headquarters of the Democratic Executive Committee are of the most cheering character. A letter was received from Gen. Banks, in which he states that, after delivering a speech in this city in response to an invitation from a number of bankers, merchants, and business men, he will proceed to Maine and stump the State for the Liberal ticket. The clerks were kept busy posting campaign documents in response to requests from all parts of the country, and lists of speakers are constantly pre-

ADMINISTRATION COUNCILS.

The headquarters of the Grant Republican National Executive Committee were visited by few persons yesterday, the more prominent callers being the Hon. Wm. McKinney, John A. Wilson, and J. Jardine, New-Jersey; the Rev. W. H. Thomas, Atlanta, Ga.; Senator Henry Wilson, Massachusetts, and Mahlon Chance, United States Consul at Nassau, N. P. Little business was transacted at headquarters, except by the officers of the Veteran National Executive Committee, who were receiving answers to the invitations for the approaching Convention at Pittsburgh. Among the leters was the following from Thomas Wentworth Hig-ters was the following from Thomas

Thank you for your invitations to be present at the Pittsburgh Convention and to address it. I shall do so if pessible, and at any rate the Convention will have my best wishes. I wish frankly to say that I was opposed to the renomination of President Grant, but am in favor of his election. I see no reason for deserting to the enemy, because I have exercised the soldier's privilege of grumbling at my General. There seems to me to be no safety for the Reconstruction measures except in the hands of the party which secured them. The main warcry of the new party seems to be the overthrow of centralization, and what they call centralization is simply the support of the National Government to save itself from being murdered. In such a contest I am with the Government.

A long roll, containing the signatures of officers and oldiers of the late war, to the number of 5,000 or 7,000, it is claimed, is receiving about 1,000 names per day. enator Wilson expressed great confidence in the success of Gen. Grant. A prominent Grant Republican from Vermont, in an interview with a TRIBUNE reporter yes-

The most that the Liberals and Democrats can hope for in Vermont is a reduction of the The most that the Liberals and Democrats can hope for in Vermont is a reduction of the Republican majority. For years it has been a râre exception to find a Democrat in the Legislature, and frequently the Republican majority has amounted to more than the entire Democratic vote. Among the citizens of Vermont there is perhaps no man in the country so respected and heloved as Horace Greeley, and whatever Republican followers the Liberals can boast of in that State may be almost wholly attributed to Mr. Greeley's personal influence. As an instance of his popularity, at an agricultural fair held in Sheidon, Vr., about two years ago, over 20,000 people assembled to hear him speak. There has been a defection from the Republican ranks, yet even with the Immense personal influence of Mr. Greeley it is idle to think of carrying the State. The Liberal candidate for Governor is very popular, yet the party influence in the Governor is very popular, yet the party influence in the State is so strong that, beyond reducing the majorit and possibly gaining a few members of the Legislature the Liberals can expect nothing.

THE GERMANS ORGANIZING.

The Executive Committee of the German Central Greeiey and Brown Campaign organization, recently appointed, met at No. 146 Fourteenth-st., yesterday afternoon, for the purpose of organizing. The following officers were elected: President, Anthony Elek-hoff of The New-Yorker Journal; Vice-President, Moritz Ellinger; Secretary, Charles E. Wendt. The Committee adjourned till to-morrow, when a plan of action for the campaign will be prepared for adoption by the Central Campaign Committee.
At Teutonia Hall, No. 66 Essex-st., an VIIIth Assembly

District German Reform Club was formed at a meeting held last night. The object of the Club will be to work for the election of Greeley and Brown and a Reform candidate as Assistant Alderman. George Reininger was elected President; Herman Schmidt, Vice-President; E. Simon, Secretary, and Jac. Kraemer, Treasurer. Addresses were delivered by Messrs, Reininger, Kraemer, and others. In the Tenth Ward a Greeley Veterrn Company, numbering about 100 men, mostly Germans and pany, numbering about 100 men, mostly centure as soldiers of the civil war, has been formed, and Col. John W. Holmes elected commander. The Company will work vigorously for Greeley and Brown. The German Liberal Republicans will hold a mass meeting in Dramatic Hall, Newark, N. J., to-morrow

THE CANVASS IN NEW-JERSEY.

The Democrats of the Fourth Ward, Hoboken, neld a meeting, at First and Chinton-sts., last evening. Ex-Councilman Stimis was chosen permanent chairman, and the following were selected as Vice-Presidents: Fatrick Scott, Freeholder Gaffney, and Joseph Kemp. The Executive Committee includes Edward Stack. The Executive Committee includes Edward Stack, Fatrick Mullen, Hill F. Kennedy, and Harry Snyder. Speeches were made by ex-Councillman John Lee, President Stimis, and R. J. Bruce. Next Monday evening a campaign banner will be raised, and prominent speakers will address the club.

The Third Ward Greeley and Brown Club of Paterson, N. J., has rented the school-house at No. 77 Fair-st, as a place of meeting for the campaign. The Sixth Ward Greeley and Brown Club will organize at Minary Hall to-morrow night.

The Liberal Republicans of Passaic, N. J., will meet to-morrow night, in Spear's Hall, to organize a Greeley and Brown Club.

ADMINISTRATION CONGRATULATIONS.

A meeting of about 100 members of the XVIth Assembly District Grant Association was held ast night in the Demilt Hall, at Second-ave. and Twenty-third-st. The Association was called to order by the President, Gen. Wm. Anthon, who congratulated the Association on the result of the election in North Carolina, which he declared to be a happy omen of the result of the contest. Twenty-five new members were en-rolled, and resolutions passed indorsing Gen. Anthon's views of the triumph of Republican principles in North Carolina, James McKenney, who was loudly cheered, declared himself a seceder from the Democratic party, and said that he had formed a Grant Democratic Association, which, after three weeks' work numbered 175 members. He considered it their duty to obtain all the Democratic votes they could in favor of the Grant ticket. Mr. Peebles than addressed the Association, and said that he had grown up under the teachings of Horace Greeley; but for all that he considered that personal feelings must be sacrificed to the national well-being. Therefore he was for Grant in spite of the foul slanders against him, which, however, could not touch his military reputation, for this would ever remain as one of the brightest pages in American history. [Cheers.] If they were to elect Horace Greeley, and thus bring "Bill" Tweed and the New-York system into the National Capital, what, he asked, would be the kind of government they would have! Gen. Authon followed with another loudly applauded speech, in which he said that the presperous Administration of Grant made his relection at this time, when the work of reconstruction was not yet completed, a matter of ordinary prudence. Horace Greeley was an unsafe man in finance; and his election would have a disastrous effect on the credit of the country, and might bring about national bankruptey which would mean ruin to ali. Mr. Steras of Georgia also addressed the Association.

The Young Men's Grant Republican Association of the IXth Assembly District met at its rooms, Bleecker buildings, in Bleecker+et. hast evening. The Club has about 230 members and 104 new names were proposed, has evening, although not more than 30 persons attended the meeting. Resolutions were adopted that the victory brightest pages in American history. [Cheers.] If they

INCIDENTS OF THE LIBERAL CANVASS,

The Tenth Ward Greeley Campaign Club met last evening at Nerdig's Hall, No. 116 Hester-st., Samuel Stern in the chair. The Club was organized two weeks ago, and numbers 160 members, 85 of whom are Germans. It is divided into two branches-German and English-the former meeting every Monday and the latter every Wednesday evening. Several new members were added to the roll last evening. A meeting of the Vth Assembly District Greeley and

Brown Campaign Club was held last evening at No. 213 Spring-st. John Dilger presided. The roll of members contains over 150 names, comprising the most prominent Germans in the District. Several new members joined the club. Over 200 residents of Yorkville assembled at the Gree ley and Brown Headquarters, No. 206 East Eighty-sixthst., last evening, James M. Gray presiding. Speeches st., last evening, James M. Gray presiding. Speeches were made by Gen. Thomas F. Burke, Wm. E. Smith. and Mr. Hebbard. Over 50 new members were enrolled. The IXth Assembly District Liberal Campaign Club held a spirited meeting at Lebanon Hall, in Abingdon-square, last night, at which 25 new members were enrolled. The President, Sanford A. Macomber, made a few congratulatory remarks.

At the annual ple-nic of the David Winterble Association of the XIXth Ward at Union Park, last evening, a vote was taken for Presidential candidates with the following result: Greeley, 512; Grant, 3.
